

The diagram illustrates a sequence of 8 steps for a sorting algorithm. The top and bottom rows are grids of 8 cells each, containing green rectangles. The middle row shows a blue line with a large blue arrow pointing right, indicating the movement of an element through the sequence.

A blue line drawing of a person lying on their back, arms extended, on a grid background. Below the drawing is a row of green rectangular boxes for labeling.